FOREWORD

The Kansas Association for Youth (KAY) is a character-building, leadership-training, service organization directed by the Kansas State High School Activities Association. Club service projects, programs, and parties give the student members an opportunity to participate in a citizenship laboratory. School administrators and sponsors use many phases of the club program for group- guidance activities.

Hundreds of educators and students have helped to write the Constitution, Bylaws, and Point System. These guidelines have encouraged members to participate in a vigorous citizenship program which has earned KAY six national citations.

The KAY Handbook, originally available to clubs in a three-ring notebook, is also available online via the sponsor's password. Each KAY club has two hard copies of the KAY Handbook, one for the sponsor (gold) and one for the president (blue). New clubs will receive two copies of the KAY Handbook. Clubs are encouraged to copy the contents of the updated materials folder and place them in their school notebooks. Clubs desiring to purchase additional KAY Handbooks may do so on the KAY order form.

The KAY Handbook is designed as an aid for club officers and leaders for club evaluation, planning projects, and club activities. Service project suggestions are contained in this publication along with the constitution, point system, and historical background of the Kansas Association for Youth.

The Kansas Association for Youth is a student association unique to Kansas. The KSHSAA proudly offers this activity to Kansas students, through its member schools, to "make a world of difference" for current and future generations.

SECTION 1 – KANSAS ASSOCIATION for YOUTH

What Is the Kansas Association for Youth?

The Kansas Association for Youth is a character-building, leadership-training, service organization directed by the Kansas State High School Activities Association. The local organization is under the direction of the high school principal, who, in turn appoints a sponsor(s) to lead and to guide the club program.

KAY is a nationally acclaimed organization which provides students an opportunity to learn to assume their citizenship responsibilities and to enrich their personalities through well-organized programs, projects, and parties.

Programs educate, inspire, and direct members into carefully planned service projects. These projects emphasize four areas of service, school, community, nation, and world. Recreation can also be incorporated into service projects. Club parties are a means to celebrate accomplishments as well as afford opportunities for recruitment and enjoyment. School administrators use many phases of the club program for group-guidance activities.

How Did KAY Get Its Start?

The high school principals of Kansas for years realized the importance of a unified activities program. It is for that reason they formed the Kansas State High School Activities Association.

On October 13, 1945, after years of discussion, the Legislative Council passed a resolution to organize a character-building, leadership-training club program to be a part of the Association. On December 15, 1945, a committee appointed by the Board of Control, drew up twelve requirements for the club program. These requirements were approved by the Board of Control and E.A. Thomas, Commissioner of the KSHSAA. On June 7, 1946, Wanda May Vinson was employed by the Board of Control to direct the program of the Kansas Association for Youth, Kays and Kayettes. The Board of Control on February 22, 1947, employed Carl Kopelk to direct the Kays (boys).

In January 1957, when E.A. Thomas retired, Carl Kopelk became the Executive Secretary of the KSHSAA and Brice B. Durbin was employed as his assistant. Durbin served as the director of the boys' program until Kopelk's death in October 1962. Durbin then became the Executive Secretary, and in June 1963, Nelson Hartman joined the staff as his assistant and to serve as director of the Kays. The continued growth of both the Kansas State High School Activities Association and the Kansas Association for Youth made it necessary in June 1967, to add to the administrative staff. Keith Akins was hired to direct the Kays. Claire Casselman joined the staff in September 1982 to serve as the Kansas Association for Youth (Kayettes) director with the retirement of Wanda May Vinson.

The entire KAY program was brought under Claire Casselman's direction in 1988, with the retirement of Keith Akins. That same year, Kayette Leadership Camp became KAY Leadership Camp, making it a co-ed, leadership-training experience for the first time in its history. Claire Casselman resigned her position in 1989 and Cheryl Gleason joined the staff in November 1989, to serve as director of the KAY program. With the retirement of Cheryl Gleason in 2021, Annie Diederich joined the staff in July 2021. Diederich retired in 2023. Sarah Smith joined the KSHSAA staff in July 2023 to serve as director of the KAY program. The Kansas Association for Youth continues to grow and develop by seeking to fill the needs of current and future generations.

Is There KAY For Middle School Students?

The Kansas Association for Youth is designed for both middle school and senior high boys and girls. Citizenship is learned at all ages. It is recommended, when there are clubs in both the senior high and middle schools within a school district, the sponsors from all clubs meet for planning sessions. Some of the programs, projects and parties suggested in this publication are more conducive to senior high, and discretion is advised in choosing suitable activities for your club which will be successfully carried through. For example, sponsors are urged to help middle school students select projects which do not require solicitation of money or night meetings. Projects which take little or no schooltime, outside of the scheduled club period, are much easier for middle school students.

What Is KAY Based Upon?

Hundreds of educators and students have helped to write the Constitution, Bylaws, and Point System for the Kansas Association for Youth. The Constitution and Bylaws may be found in this publication. The six objectives of KAY are character, health, service, appreciation, recreation, and leadership. The six sides of the Insignia represent these objectives. Found in this section is the KAY Pledge, Motto, and Slogan. Blue and Gold are the colors chosen for this organization by a majority student vote.

How Is Achievement Recognized?

The Kansas Association for Youth stresses group involvement, and a Point System has been devised to award any worthwhile project. It is hoped that participation by a large percentage of members will develop an appreciation for their responsibilities as citizens in a democracy. Awards are given to clubs that have earned 1000 points during the year and have filed a summary of the year's projects, programs, and parties with the principal. Clubs may elect to participate in the Point System; however, it is not a requirement for membership.

What Is The Key To A Successful Club?

All clubs are urged to plan their activities at least a semester in advance. (See the leadership and organization section of this handbook—GET THE YEAR IN GEAR.) Service, Recreation, and Financial projects are discussed in this publication. Club parties, themes, ideas, and project building blocks are suggested in this publication as well.

Where Can I Learn About Leadership?

One of the most notable objectives of the Kansas Association for Youth is leadership training. An entire week of leadership training, group dynamics, brainstorming, and recreation kicks-off each school year at KAY Leadership Camp! Held in late summer, KLC offers Kansas students the unique opportunity to experience citizenship in action. This week also enables clubs to mold their plans for the coming school year. Seven Regional Conferences are held the first two weeks of November, emphasizing personal inspiration and leadership development. Eleven-Twelve Unit Conferences are held throughout the winter months for club members. They emphasize leadership on the local level.

How Am I Represented In The Organization?

At each of the seven Regional Conferences, the sponsors elect one of their members to serve as an Area Sponsor and to sit on a state advisory committee. This committee meets each November/December with the KSHSAA staff to plan and make recommendations for the improvement of the KAY program.

Students attending each of the seven Regional Conferences elect an Area President. These young people serve as an advisory committee to the KSHSAA and meet each January with KSHSAA staff. Students who attend KAY Leadership Camp as well as the Regional Conferences are asked to evaluate the program. All evaluations are studied carefully by the KSHSAA.

When And How May A School Organize A KAY Club?

1. The school is a member of the Kansas State High School Activities Association.
2. The administrator approves of the KAY club program.
3. The students in that school indicate an interest in the club program.
4. The administrator appoints a faculty member or members to plan a meeting for the purpose of explaining the projects, programs, and parties.
5. Each new club shall receive a charter certificate during the recognition program at the Regional Conference.

To organize a new club

1. Review all of the materials available on the KAY website. KAY Clubs are given two Handbooks of materials to assist them – one for the president and one for the sponsor(s).
2. KAY website provides a lot of information about KAY and its activities <http://www.kshsaa.org/Public/KAY/Main.cfm>
3. Schedule a meeting for all the students and invite the KAY State Director to visit your school and explain the club program and answer questions. A virtual planning meeting is also an option.
4. Following the meeting, call a short session for all who are interested in organizing such a club. A nominating committee is identified. This committee shall be comprised of two representatives from each class and one representative at-large from the entire group. Ask all in attendance to sign the membership list.
5. The third meeting is for your purpose of electing officers. It is suggested that the ballots be prepared for the election.
6. The officers shall meet with the sponsors to select the board members. A list of officers and board member positions is located in Section 1(Constitution).
7. The next meeting should follow the steps identified in GET THE YEAR IN GEAR (located in the KAY HANDBOOK) – Section 2.
8. The programs and service projects a club will participate in are at the direction of the sponsor, officers, and board members with input from the membership.

PARLIAMENTARY PYRAMID

MOTIONS

Business is introduced by a motion, or by a resolution. The steps in making and voting on a motion are as follows:

1. Obtain the Floor: The member rises and addresses the presiding officer. Recognition by the presiding officer gives the member the right to speak.
2. Make the Motion: The member then states the motion or resolution, for example: "I move that our club sponsor a school party." Always present the motion with the opening words, "I move that . . ."
3. Second the Motion: If anyone wishes the matter discussed and voted upon, a member says, "I second the motion" without rising or addressing the chair. If no member seconds it immediately the presiding officer may call for a second.
NOTE: Consult a parliamentary authority for the motions that do not require a second.
4. State the Motion: The presiding officer then states the question; for example: "It has been moved and seconded that our club sponsor a school party." He then opens the meeting for a discussion of the motion. Members must obtain the floor before speaking. (See #1)
5. Put the Question: After sufficient opportunity has been given for discussion and/or debate, the presiding officer then may say, after repeating the motion, "Are you ready for the question?" If no one claims the floor, the presiding officer then says, "All those in favor of the motion as stated say aye, all opposed, say no."

Note. Clubs working on the Gold Award are reminded of requirements #11 and #12 (Board meeting once a month with 75% in attendance and president [or designated leader] meet with sponsor at least once a week to discuss club plans.)

AFTER SCHOOL YEAR BEGINS

First Board Meeting

Preparation

- The president shall prepare a draft of the agenda for the board meeting. Consult this section of the KAY Handbook for suggested agenda items and calendar. (Before copies are made for the meeting, it should be reviewed and approved by the sponsor.)
- Officers and board members, in charge of programs or projects which are to be discussed at the meeting, should prepare a list of needed committees, duties of the committees, and the dates when the work is to be completed.

Order of Business

- President hands each sponsor, officer, and board member an agenda for the meeting
- Follow business meeting procedure (See Parliamentary Procedures in Section 1- 7 of this handbook.)
- Cover the details
- Ask for reports on “HOW” the programs, projects and parties are to be carried out by board members during the month.

Subsequent board meetings should follow the above procedure.

NOTE: See suggested topics for board meetings on calendar pages (Section 2, Pages 14-22).

SETTING STANDARDS FOR MEETINGS “WHAT’S THE NORM?”

Setting standards (sometimes called establishing norms) is very important for your officers, board of directors, committees, or any group that meets as a whole or part of your club. The norms are the ground rules—the expectations—that each person has of all group members when meeting.

The norms by which your Board or Club functions should be developed by and for your group. For instance, the entire Board should be involved in establishing the norms for the year—the earlier the better. If everyone has a voice in creating the standards, then everyone is clear as to their meaning, and can make a real commitment to meet according to those standards.

At the first or second meeting of the Board, raise the issue and after discussion, develop a list of norms with input from everyone. Once a list is generated, ask the group if there are any on the list by which someone cannot abide. Once completed, the list should be duplicated and given to each Board member.

Possible norms to include are:

- Meetings will start and end on time.
- Every effort will be made to attend all meetings.
- No knocks! We won’t knock any person or any idea.
- We’ll have food at our meetings held on days ending in a “Y.”
- Disagreement is acceptable as long as we disagree agreeably.
- If you know ahead of time you’ll be absent or late, tell the president or sponsor.
- Stick to the agenda.
- The person “with the floor” gets all ears.
- Silence is consensus.
- Disagreements stay in the room.

MAKING THE MOST OF MEETINGS

Why Have Meetings?

- Get people together?
- Examine problems?
- Focus on goals?
- Solve problems?
- Make decisions?
- Develop leadership?
- Improve communication?
- Resolve conflicts?
- Nurture pride and enthusiasm?
- Make plans?
- Set goals?
- Share information?

TYPES OF MEETINGS

Choose the kind of meeting you need in order to serve the goals chosen for this specific meeting to be accomplished:

1. To inform (communicate information)
2. To persuade (sell a decision)
3. To explore topics (generate ideas)
4. To solve problems (group decision)
5. To build human beings (develop group pride)
6. To inspire
7. To make decisions

THE IMPORTANCE OF AN AGENDA

An agenda is a list of important points to be presented/covered at your meeting. The agenda should be drafted well before the meeting by the president and the sponsor. This saves time and insures that everything will be covered.

An agenda includes:

1. Call to order (official opening of a meeting)
2. Roll call (check-in sheets maybe used)
3. Reading of Minutes (brief summary of last meeting)
4. Officers Reports (Vice President and Treasurer reports)
5. Committee Reports (brief summary - tell them in advance to keep it brief)
6. Unfinished business (short- and long-range plans)
7. New business (introduce new items)
8. Announcements (reminders, messages, etc.)
9. Adjournment

EFFECTIVE AND TIME EFFICIENT MEETINGS

Before The Meeting

1. Plan meeting carefully: who, what, when, where, how and how many.
2. Use email to communicate with those attending meeting.
3. Prepare and send out agenda in advance. Put discussion items in question format, which will get people thinking before they arrive.
4. Determine if preliminary information is to be sent with the agenda.
5. Come early and set up meeting room. Round tables are best for open discussion and problem solving.

At The Beginning of The Meeting

6. Start on time.
7. Introductions (if needed), state expectations of meeting.
8. Review and revise agenda's order, if necessary.
9. Set clear time limits, if needed.
10. Review action items from previous meeting.

During The Meeting

11. Focus on one issue at a time.
12. Draw participants into the meeting by asking questions like "What do you think of..." or "How do you think this would affect..."
13. Stay on task/time.

At the End of The Meeting

14. Establish action items: who, what, when.
15. Review the group memory on key decisions.
16. Set the date and place for the next meeting along with preliminary agenda.
17. Evaluate meetings effectiveness.
18. Close meeting with a positive "we can" attitude.
19. Thank people for attending.

After The Meeting

20. Write up and distribute minutes within 3 or 4 days. Quick action reinforces importance of meeting and reduces error of memory.
21. Discuss any problems during the meeting with other officers; come up with ways improvements can be made.
22. Follow-up on delegating decisions. See that all members understand and carry out their responsibilities.
23. Give recognition and appreciation to excellent and timely progress.
24. Put unfinished business on the agenda for the next meeting.
25. Conduct a periodic evaluation of the meetings. Weak areas can be analyzed and improved for more productive meetings.

DON'T FORGET KAY LEADERSHIP CAMP — JUNCTION CITY, ROCK SPRINGS RANCH JULY 29-AUG 2

SECTION 3 – CAMP AND CONFERENCES

REGIONAL CONFERENCES

Regional Conferences, held in the fall, afford opportunities for student leaders and sponsors from neighboring clubs to share successes and challenges, and to exchange ideas. Highlights of each conference include a speech by an exciting, motivational, and respected individual, Club Goal Recognition, Area Project Reports and a message from the state director and outgoing Area President. Clubs are encouraged to send their sponsor, president, and other officers/board members. These conferences inspire delegates to return to their clubs to challenge their members. Dates and information may be found in Section 3 of the KAY Handbook.

UNIT CONFERENCES

Unit Conferences, held during the winter months, are designed to focus on club leadership on the local level. The half-day conference gives students the opportunity to share projects and program ideas, to develop leadership skills and to participate in time management activities. Clubs are encouraged to bring 25 members to this half day conference. Wearing KAY Club t-shirts is encouraged! Dates and detailed information are located in Section 3 of the KAY Handbook.

SPONSOR SESSION

The KAY Sponsor Session is held in mid-September on even numbered years. This special event provides a tremendous opportunity for all sponsors to understand the important role they have of providing leadership and guidance for their KAY Club. In addition to discovering the rewards of service in their lives and how they can motivate and inspire students in their KAY club

KAY LEADERSHIP CAMP

KAY Leadership Camp provides students the opportunity to develop leadership potential, to enrich personalities, to create an awareness of citizenship responsibilities and to develop a desire to become involved in those programs and projects which help to build a better world in which to live.

Background—In the early years of KAY, two summer camps were held, one for boys and one for girls. The boys' camp was eventually discontinued leaving only Kayette Leadership Camp. Because of the increasing number of co-ed KAY Clubs, the KSHSAA again offered summer leadership training for all members of the Kansas Association for Youth with the 1988 co-ed session of KLC.

KAY camps have been rated by several national groups as one of the finest leadership-training programs in the nation. KLC is held at Rock Springs 4-H Center (south of Junction City). Camp Brochures, containing facts and instructions are provided in the winter/spring to each club and its delegates.

IMPORTANT CAMP MATERIALS ARE GIVEN TO ALL KAY CLUBS IN JANUARY/FEBRUARY AT THE UNIT CONFERENCES.

Sponsors picking up campers on the last day of camp (Friday) are strongly encouraged to attend the Closing General Session (approximately 9:45 AM).

Wanda May Vinson Scholarship

Wanda May Vinson founded the Kansas Association for Youth and directed the organization for 36 years. Through her guidance the KAY program became a nationally acclaimed organization which has provided thousands of Kansas youth the opportunity to receive leadership training and to assume citizenship responsibilities by serving their school, community, nation and world.

The Vinson Scholarship Fund was established in 1957. Miss Vinson wanted to help graduating seniors who provided outstanding leadership in the Kansas Association for Youth further their education. Those KAY members who achieved high scholastic standing and made contributions of service to their school and community were eligible to apply for a Vinson Scholarship.

2023 marks the 66th year of awarding Wanda May Vinson Scholarships. During this span of time, six hundred fifteen students have received these scholarships, this year reaching a total amount of $147,000.00.

In addition, since 2006, 237 scholarships at $50 each have been awarded to KAY clubs for KAY Leadership Camp attendance. In 2023 his total reached $11,800.00. The grand total for all Vinson Scholarships equals $158,800.00

HOW ARE THESE SCHOLARSHIPS FUNDED?

The money for these scholarships are made possible through gifts from KAY members of Kansas and by other supporters of the Kansas Association for Youth. A large donation each year is received from campers at KAY Leadership Camp and at the fall Regional Conferences.

Clubs may make a donation to the Vinson Scholarship Fund any time during the year. The Regional Conference Collection provides a great way for clubs to support this fund.

So what should a club give? Some options:

- $1.00 per member; $2.00 per member
- $.76 per member; $7.60 per member
- $76.00 for the 76th Year
- Any other amount – i.e., $50.00, $100.00

Remembering that “Something Is Better Than Nothing”, give what your club can afford.

If donating at Regional Conference: Give your check to your Area Sponsor upon arrival.

SECTION 4 – SERVICE PROJECTS

Service projects involve people, people within your club, your school, your family, your community, your nation, and your world. Service projects produce awareness and put citizenship into action and help develop a love for humanity.

Sponsors should advise clubs to choose feasible projects which will be successfully completed. Projects should also have an interest appeal to the entire membership. Programs can inform and stir up interest before a project is undertaken.

Most of the projects suggested in this handbook are suitable for all KAY clubs, however, please notice that some projects are most suitable for senior high students. We recommend that those which require service instead of money be adopted by middle/junior high school clubs. Projects which do not require night meetings, or which take little or no school time outside of the scheduled club period, usually are much easier for middle/junior high school students.

Service projects are categorized into four areas, school, community, nation and world. Recreational and financial projects may fall under any area of service. A list of theme ideas for projects, programs and parties is also contained in this publication.

Service projects require careful planning. Committees or teams will be utilized in most projects. The entire club membership should desire to be involved in a chosen project, and good organization will use all those who have that desire. (Please refer to “Point System” section of this handbook for information concerning earning points and awards).

MAKE YOUR SERVICE PROJECTS FUN AND BENEFICIAL!

When you are preparing for your next service project, use this check off sheet as a guide.

DURING THE PREPARATION STAGE OF THE PROJECT ASK YOURSELF:

- ✓ What does my school and community need? Are you doing projects of service for someone or something? Choose a project that will really benefit someone. Brainstorm ideas for ways you can change things or help someone.
- ✓ What are we trying to accomplish? Plan your course of action. Decide the best way to conquer the task at hand. Answer questions such as who, what, when, where, why, and how. Also, make sure everyone in your organization is informed and involved.
- ✓ Who are we helping? Who are the recipients of the project? Are you choosing a project that will benefit them? Communicate with the recipients. Ask them questions. Find out what they need.
- ✓ What do we really know about this? Educate yourself about the task at hand. Learn as much information as possible about the service project and the recipients through any resources available. Have a speaker come to the next meeting to talk about the problem you chose to solve. Service can be a great learning experience for your club. This can be a great way to help your club empathize and understand the importance of the service.

WHEN YOU ARE PERFORMING THE ACTION OF YOUR PROJECT, ASK YOURSELF:

- ✓ Are we accomplishing our goal? You've made a plan of action and now you need to carry it through. This is a great opportunity for your club to collaborate and achieve the objective you set out to accomplish. Make sure you're staying on course.

REFLECT ON THE PROJECT BY ANSWERING THESE QUESTIONS:

- ✓ Did we really solve the problem? Is your service going to make a difference in the long run or is it a quick fix to the problem? If you haven't made a permanent difference, consider brainstorming more ideas to solve the problem.
- ✓ How could things have been done better? We can learn a lot by discussing the project after it's over. You can come up with better methods for communication leadership roles and future projects. Share your successes and failures. Use this as a learning tool for your future.
- ✓ Are we having fun? Celebrate a little too! Service should be fun during and after the project. Choose a creative way to reflect upon your service project.

The stages above involve three important steps: preparation, action, and reflection. These three steps comprise a method known as Service Learning. The idea is to help students learn real world application of academic and functional skills.

MIXERS

(See www.partygamecentral.com/icebreakers)

Alphabet Autograph

- In a large group where people do not know each other, such a game may be used. Each guest is given a sheet of paper marked in 25 squares like a BINGO card. Each square has the letter of the alphabet, with the middle "free" and the letters "x, y, z" combined in one box. Guests try to get the squares filled with first names. Examples: Alice for the "A" square; Bill the "B" square, and so on. Ten minutes are allowed for the game. No one usually fills all of the squares but small prizes may be given for those who have filled all the squares diagonally or horizontally across the page.

Alphabet Scramble

- Give each person an adhesive square with a letter of the alphabet on each. Use all letters (add extra vowels). Ask everyone to place the letter on their shirt. Then, for five minutes, everyone will mix and stand in order to spell words associated with KAY. Once a word is formed the sponsor is informed and it is recorded. The tricky part is that all of this must be done in complete silence. The goal is to have 25-30 different words on individual lists. (With large groups, this can be done in a contest by teams.)

Boggle Mixer

- Divide into small groups. Each group has its members write their first name in large letters on a single piece of paper underneath each other with a uniform left margin. (See example on next page.)

S A R A H	(SAIL)
B I L L	(BLIND)
L I N D A	(LAND)
A N D R E W	(AND) (DREW)

Each group then tries to make as many words (three letters or more, bonus points for five-letter words (1), six-letter words (2), etc.) from the combined letters of the names. Any combinations of letters can be used as long as the letters are contingent to each other. (No proper names or foreign words.) Set a three-minute time limit.

Human Jigsaw (Knots)

- To form a knot, stand in a circle and all grab hands. (Most successful if you don't hold hands with a person next to you or hold both hands of the same person.) Unravel the knot without breaking hands although pivoting on your hand holds may eliminate the need for a chiropractor. You will find yourselves in one large circle or occasionally, two interconnected ones (amazing)!

Human Scavenger Hunt

- Each person is given a list of "things" to find. A time limit is set and the fun begins. The list requires the participants to find out information about the people in the group, their names and where they are from. Scavenger Hunt questions include: Find— "someone with more than six brothers or sisters;" "someone wearing blue contact lenses;" "a girl with a toothbrush in her purse;" etc.

I Like You But

- Group chairs in a circle with one person standing in the center, "IT." "IT" announces, "I like you but I REALLY like people who . . ." wear glasses, have a pet, sing in a choir, watch soap operas, have white shoes, etc. All people possessing such items or characteristics must get up and change chairs. "IT" tries to capture an empty chair leaving one person standing to become the new "IT."

Lap Game

- The group stands in a tight circle all facing the same direction. Shoulders are facing the inner and outer circles. On the leaders command, everyone sits in the lap of the person behind them.

Pass the Lemon

- Break up into groups and hand each group a lemon, directing the members to pass it around the circle until an alarm clock (previously set) rings. The person caught with the lemon and the person who gave it to him/her must eat it. For a reward, why not use lollipops?

People Bingo

- Each person is given a BINGO card which has a numbered list of items to find within the group. Numbers correspond to 25 boxes on the BINGO card (includes one free box in middle to be filled in with your own name). As the participants find items, signatures of people are filled in the box. All boxes must be filled. "Items" include: "Person wearing a class ring;" "Person with birthday the same month as yours;" "Person with your shoe size;" etc.

People to People

- Stand in pairs. One odd person is in the middle of the group. (The odd person is the one without a partner and will give commands) the center person calls . . . “cheek to cheek” “hand to hand,” “ankle to ankle.” The partners touch each other as commanded. When they hear the command “people to people” all partners have to switch, the person left without a partner then has to give the commands.

Pile Up

- In this chair switching game, everyone is assured of a place to sit, although there is no reserved seating and no guarantee of a single occupancy! We start in a circle – one person to a chair. Now we pose questions that can be answered YES or NO, such as “Are you left handed?” Whoever answers yes, moves one chair to the right. Who- ever answers no, stays in that seat! IF the chair is occupied – “we pile up!” We could all end up in one chair – but will get to know each other a little better! Visible qualities like “Do you have blue eyes?” are ruled out. Leader should join in the questioning. Suggested questions include “Were you born west of the Mississippi? Do you have a sister? Do you prefer cantaloupe to watermelon? Will you be a senior? Do you like . . . Do you have . . . etc.”

Quarter in the Crowd

- (Handshaking Game) A quarter is given to someone in the group. The others do not, of course, know who holds it. The quarter is given to the tenth person who shakes hands with the person holding it.

What’s Changed?

- Get into pairs. Look at your partner for one minute. Partners then turn around and change three things. Face each other again and figure out what they have changed. Repeat with changing 4, 5 or 6 things! It challenges creativity and promotes keen observation.

PARTY SUGGESTIONS

Big-Little Sister/Brother Party

This party helps the freshmen get acquainted with the seniors. Each senior draws one of the freshmen’s names and dresses him/her in a funny outfit. The sponsor chooses three winners under the following categories: cutest, ugliest, most original, etc. The freshmen are then instructed by their senior big sisters/brothers to play games, such as rolling a raw egg with their noses, shaving a balloon and digging grapes out of a pan with their mouth.

Banana Split Party

Provide the ingredients and allow members to build their own split. Perhaps ingredients could be withheld based on answers on KAY questions or a contest of some sort.

Indoor Olympics

Modified events may include javelin throw (straw), shop put (cotton ball), 10-yd sprint (on hands and knees pushing hard boiled egg with nose), discus throw (paper plates), long jump, etc. Be creative!

KAY Family Feud

This game show situation would be conducted with either members performing (answering) and 8th graders watching or 8th graders participating. The number of responses and questions/answers will vary. Possible questions could be:

1. Best things about high school
2. Helpful hints for being a freshman
3. Hardest classes/teachers
4. KAY Objectives
5. Best school service projects
6. KAY Officers

Etc. Be creative—have fun!

Pool Party

A great idea for early fall membership party. Set up relay races; “bobbing for tennis balls;” water softball, basketball, football; Olympic diving contest, etc. Follow with cookout in the park.

Spring Fling for 8th Graders Trashy Tossed Salad Party

Fill trash bag with lettuce, tomatoes, celery, carrots, cucumbers, diced ham, raisins, nuts, etc. Shake up and serve to entire membership. Provide dressing and crackers.
