

KAY KLIPS

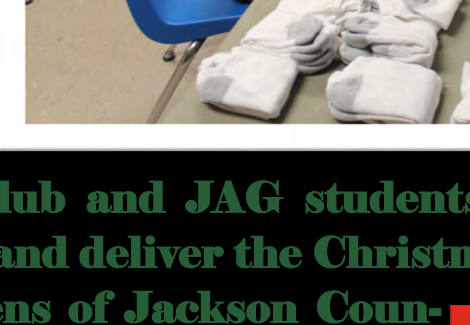

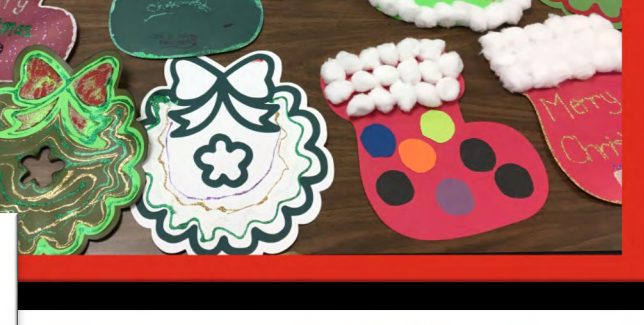

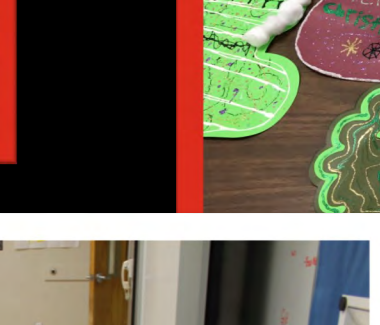

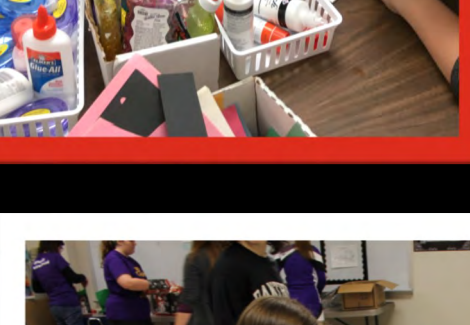

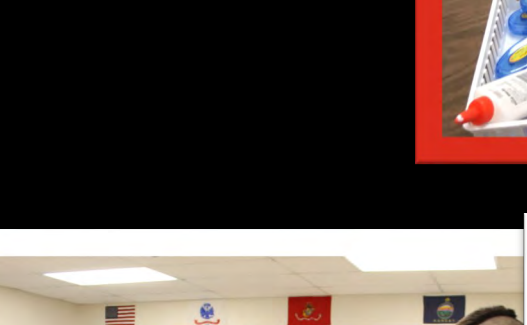

Holcomb High KAY members made candy cane reindeer to be handed out at the community Christmas Tree lighting.

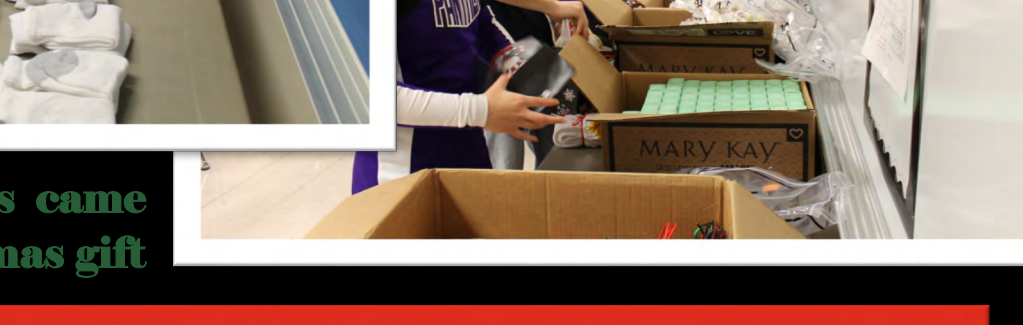

Arkansas City MS KAY club making pencil bouquets for staff at their December meeting and their annual food drive was another success.

Ellinwood HS Kay Club "Little Buddies" project with 29 2nd graders at their Christmas party. And the club enjoyed raking leaves. Also for Citizenship Week Serve my Community, they decorated Christmas Stockings to take to Woodhaven.

The Royal Valley KAY Club and JAG students came together to help assemble and deliver the Christmas gift bags for the Senior Citizens of Jackson County.

Osawatomic HS KAY Club participated in Citizenship Week by writing quick notes of appreciation to the administration on Post-Its. They went in one evening after everyone was gone and "bombed" office doors. Every member had a chance to participate and it was fun sneaking in after everyone was gone.

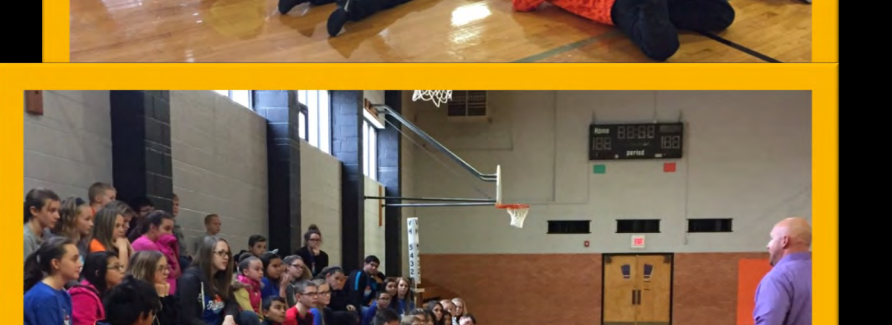

The Junction City Middle School recently participated in a Filly Football event.

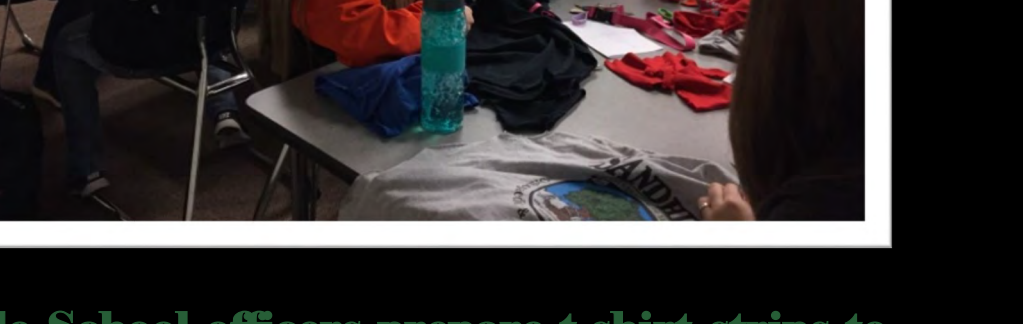

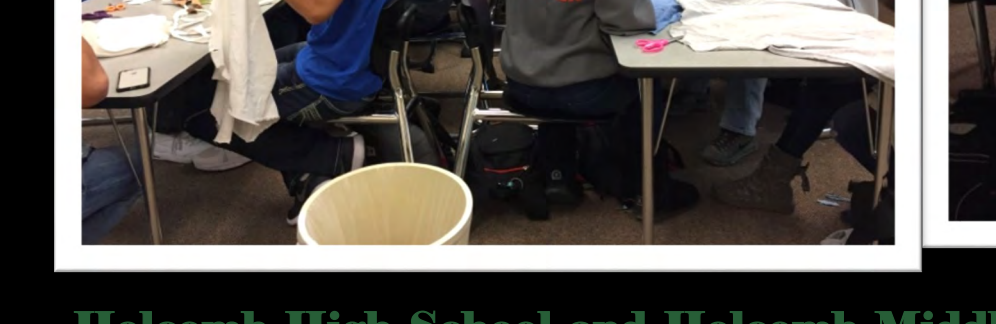

The Northern Valley KAY Club stuffed goodie bags for the children at the community Christmas Party.

KAY Director Cheryl Gleason and fellow KLC Staff Members, Kate & Luke Bryan and Abraham Pfannenstiel, cheered for Saige Baalman (former Maize HS KAY member and current KLC Staff) at a local college basketball game.

Holcomb High School and Holcomb Middle School officers prepare t-shirt strips to make into dog toys. This is one of the student activities planned for the KAY mini conference for the 5th graders

The Stockton HS KAY has a had a busy December serving their world by collecting dimes for Christian Children's Fun, serving their club with hot cocoa and cookies and serving their community by filling and delivering Christmas stockings to nursing home residents. Also for fun before finals Santa and his Elves (KAY Officers) gave "gag" gifts to the Staff before finals.
