

KAY KLIPS

The Derby Middle School KAY Club members made 7 blankets to donate to sick children.

Kinsley High School KAY Club trying out the "Seatbelt Convincer", with the Kansas Highway Patrol. The Convincer was designed as a straightforward and simple way to educate the young and old on the importance of seat belt usage.

Manhattan-Susan B. Anthony Middle School KAY Club counting money raised for Pasta for Pennies. They raised $1556.37.

Wakeeney-Trego Community High School KAY Club roasted hot dogs and marshmallows, played yard games and sat around a fire for the end of year bash!

Halstead High School KAY Club shares a few pictures from a Community Service Color Day. They did traditional community service projects in the morning and in the afternoon they hosted a "Color Day" at their middle school. Nearly 300 students participated in a Color Run, Twister, Trust Building, Trek Relays and Throwing.

Students at Maize High stroll the London Market, a fundraiser organized by the Maize High KAY Club and the MHS English department to support the Guatemala Stove Project and student English scholarships. Students from MHS made and sold items, enjoyed music, and celebrated Shakespeare's birthday.

Wakeeney-Trego Community High School KAY Club put on a school dodgeball tournament. The entry fee was a box of Kleenex for the school.

KAY Members of Manhattan-Susan B. Anthony Middle School made baskets of Hope for Manhattan Hospice Families (right) and members went shopping at Target for Angel Tree in December (left).

The Lansing Kays appreciated teachers on Cinco de Mayo by making and distributing Sombrero Cookies.

