

2020 “Virtual” KSHSAA Game Day Spirit Showcase Competition

Coaches: You will choose your own offensive or defensive cheer this year. Here are some sample cues you may use when announcing your situational element.

SAMPLE Situational Cues

(These situational cues are not guaranteed at live events)

OFFENSE

That’s another (mascot) first down.

The (mascot) keep the drive alive with that first down play.

What a catch! That sets the (mascots) up ready to score.

What a run! That sets the (mascots) up ready to score.

It’s 1st and 10 for the (mascots).

It’s a close game and the (mascots) are driving down the field for a score.

DEFENSE

The (mascots) are digging in to get the stop at the goal line.

The (mascots) need to make a stop here to seal the win.

It’s 3rd down and the (mascots) need to make a big stop.

The (mascots) need a big stop here – let’s hold ‘em.

Our opponent has the ball and it’s up to the (mascots) to stop them.

BASKETBALL

The (mascots) got the rebound and need to score.

The (mascots) have the ball and need to score

The (mascots) need a steal or to make a stop to seal the win.

The (mascots) are on a fast break and ready to score.

The (mascots) are driving down the court and ready to score.