Schedule

8:45 - 9:15 ARRIVAL - Check-In, Networking, Merchandise Sales, Continental Breakfast Provided

9:15 - 9:30 WELCOME - Rod Garman, KSHSAA Student Council Director

9:30 - 11:30 FOR GOOD: Building Relationships That Leave a Legacy - Dr. Farah

At the heart of leadership is the impact we leave behind. Inspired by the timeless message of Wicked, this session focuses on building authentic, lasting relationships—with yourself, your students, your colleagues, and your community—that create a legacy of trust, resilience, and hope. Walk away with practical strategies for strengthening connection and leading in a way that ensures your influence will live on, for good.

11:30 - 12:30 LUNCH - Enjoy a catered meal & conversation! (Network & Share)

12:30 - 2:30 CREATING CONNECTIONS: Get to Know You Fun Activities - Dr. Farah

STUDENT LEADERSHIP: Lessons/Activities for the Classroom & STUCO Meetings - Dr. Farah

2:30 - 2:45 CLOSURE - Prize Drawings & Reflection

Dr. Farah Ortega-Choate

Dr. Farah is an educator and national speaker. She holds four degrees including her doctorate from USC in Leadership. She not only talks about student leadership and student activities . . . she lives it every day! She is in her twenty-fifth year of teaching and is Activities Director at La Quinta Middle School in Southern California. Dr. Farah's goal is to inspire, educate, empower, and celebrate our youth and help other educators do the same!
