MIDDLE SCHOOL STUCO WORKSHOP

TOGETHER WE'RE UNLIMITED

MAIZE PERFORMING ARTS & AQUATIC CENTER | SEPTEMBER 10, 2025

Middle School Leaders – How about defying gravity this school year by providing unlimited leadership to your school and community! Be sure to attend the KSHSAA Middle School STUCO Workshop on September 10 at the Maize Performing Arts & Aquatic Center. Online registration for students and advisors is accessible behind the coach/advisor login (Activities>STUCO) and administrator login (Entry Forms>July/August). School ADs will be emailed an invoice for each registration. Registration closes September 8. The $35 fee for students and advisors includes lunch, snacks, and a t-shirt. A full day of learning, networking, team building, and just plain having fun is on the agenda. The KSHSAA is elated to announce that Dustin Galyon will be presenting.

Energy. Intensity. Passion. These are words used to describe Kansan, Dustin Galyon. As a professional speaker, Dustin has presented high-energy, interactive and intentional keynotes and seminars to over 2 million people world-wide. He is a very interactive storyteller that allows his audience to take ownership in every presentation. Most importantly, he inspires others to build better relationships. https://dustin@dustingalyon.com/

BRING YOUR BEST - Keynote Address for ALL Attendees

Do you want to be a leader that thrives? Together we will unpack three things that Great Leaders Do! Audience members will be encouraged and challenged to examine the leadership qualities of the person sitting in their seat and given the tools to elevate their leadership potential.

EMBRACE DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS - Workshop Session with ADULTS

Have you ever had a tough conversation that didn't go well? Would you believe that when difficult conversations are done well that you actually gain TRUST and AUTHORITY! This workshop will empower you to make hard conversations successful.

LET'S PACK THE PAC (MAIZE PERFORMING ARTS CENTER) ON SEPTEMBER 10!
